No. 14-7543

v.

JEFFREY R. MacDONALD

Movant

MOTION TO SUBMIT
CORRECTED BRIEF

TO THE HONORABLE CLERK OF THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

Now comes the Defendant, Jeffrey R. MacDonald, on his own behalf, respectfully requesting that the Court permit him to submit the attached corrected brief in lieu of his submission of September 14, 2015.

SUMMARY

1. While the content of his submission has not changed, Defendant was under duress and encountered technical issues at the time the aforementioned document required faxing.
2. The original was not properly formatted, numbered or spell-checked.
3. The original eventually had to be sent via the fax machine of a neighbor and thus, the record reflects her name and phone number at the top of every page.
4. The Defendant regrets this inconvenience and hopes for a favorable response to this request.

Re: Case #14-7543

Dear Mr. Warren

Please allow me to extend my thanks for your most professional, courteous, and proper advice you extended to my wife Kathryn MacDonald and then to myself, as well, on the many inquiries we made about proper procedure and deadlines at the 4th Circuit. That you accepted our calls, and gave a professional reading of all the documents we were receiving from the courts, is deeply appreciated.

Also, we would be most appreciative if you passed on to your assistants, Bob Mike, and Tony, for their also considerable efforts to insure we followed all proper procedures. The kindness is greatly appreciated.

With thanks, and best regards,

Jeff MacDonald
